

Angela Herbert White, M.Ed., PCC

Coach Consultant Speaker Trainer

Angela believes that we are all capable of being extraordinary people doing inspiring work, and we get to rise to new levels of greatness when we align our work with our own strengths and passions. Before becoming a coach, consultant, speaker and trainer, Angela spent more than 25 years in leadership positions in education, for-profit, and nonprofit organizations.

People who work with Angela say that they are finding their own ways to:

lead more confidently, serve more powerfully, and live more joyfully.

Speaking Topics

First Lead Yourself,

Then Lead YOUR Way

How to lead from your strengths, not from others' expectations

Critical Conversations

How to Stop Avoiding Conflict and Start Communicating Confidently,

I Hear You!

The Four Keys to Listening and Speaking that Get Results

"I liked her strong actionable points so much!"

-Attendee

"The training was interactive and extremely valuable. We are already implementing some of the lessons learned."

-Organization President

"Angela was relatable, clear, and presented actionable steps."

-Attendee

Angela is available for workshops, presentations, roundtables, and half-day seminars.

For more information, questions, or to book Angela for your next event or staff training:

email: angela@angelaherbertwhite.com

<https://www.angelaherbertwhite.com>