

ANGELA Y. LEON

Speaker | Trainer | In person & virtual

Professionals, small businesses, and nonprofits hire me to set up and manage their daily operations because most need organization, lack systems, and don't see a way out of their daily struggles, so I help them delegate to complete administrative, technical and creative tasks faster and better.

SPEAKING & TRAINING TOPICS

- ✦ Work-management software setup and implementation
- ✦ Customer relationship management (CRM) software setup and maintenance
- ✦ Management of virtual teams
- ✦ Effective Communication for Team Success
- ✦ Designing a work-management implementation program to improve department/team organization, prioritization, transparency, and efficiency
