

Loren

SPEAKS

ABOUT

Loren Rosario-Maldonado, an acclaimed author and People Strategist, has dedicated over 25 years to leadership coaching, change management, and cultural intelligence. Her unique ability to create human-centered workplace experiences and build high-performing teams has transformed organizations and solidified her reputation as an industry trailblazer. Her latest book, Becoming the Change: The Power of Cultural Intelligence, is a testament to her commitment to fostering cultural diversity and personal growth.

Now pursuing a Psy. D. in Cross-Cultural Psychology, Loren's expertise in navigating the multifaceted dimensions of cultural intelligence continues to guide leaders and readers alike, empowering them to make informed, impactful decisions in an increasingly interconnected world.

SPEAKING TOPICS

Integrating Cultural Intelligence into the DEI Experience

Integrate Cultural Intelligence with the DEI journey to enhance understanding, empathy and create truly inclusive and equitable environments.

Leading Diverse Teams

Leading with empathy and understanding, harnessing the power of diversity to foster innovation, promote inclusion, and drive organizational success.

Cultural Intelligence and Talent Development

Infuse cultural intelligence into talent development, recognizing it as a catalyst for innovation, inclusivity, and global success.

Keynote address:

- Importance of CQ in Global Education
- Leadership for the Future of Work
- Diversity, equity & inclusion
- Customized topics upon request

"Loren's leadership and dedication to culture building, employee development, and diversity initiatives were truly exceptional."

Kathy William-Botrous, Senior Executive Director
Telvista, Inc

Contact

 954-649-6773

 pr@lorenrosario.com

 www.culturaglobal.com