

Biography Of Rayna Bailey-Smith

Rayna Bailey-Smith

a Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker, embodies compassion, empathy, and generosity
in her personal and professional life.

Rayna Bailey-Smith, a Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker, embodies compassion, empathy, and generosity in her personal and professional life. Rayna has beautifully interwoven her passion for helping others and her resilience into her career, reflecting her empathic nature. Her career as a social worker and her love for reading, cooking, and travel represent her desire to connect deeply with people and communities - an attribute of her compassionate nature. Her involvement in the world of entrepreneurship, along with her supportive stance toward women's health, makes her commitment to generosity more profound.

A Career Grounded in Empathy

Bailey-Smith's career has diverse and focused undertakings - as a Co-Owner of Fully Restored Real Estate Enterprises, LLC with her husband and as a Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker. She has refined credentials from Howard University (MSW) and Virginia State University (BS Family and Consumer Sciences). Her compassionate spirit is mirrored in her profession, where she helps individuals navigate the complexities of life, offering solace and guidance and ultimately transforming lives.

Rayna Bailey-Smith

as a Co-Owner of Fully Restored Real Estate Enterprises, LLC with her husband and as a Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker.

Made Rich by Generosity: Enriching Lives Beyond the Clinic

Rayna's business ventures divulge her industrious nature outside her work as a social worker. She runs Fully Restored Real Estate Enterprises, LLC with her husband. This venture exhibits Rayna's versatile persona and generous bent of mind, allowing her to contribute knowledge and resources towards building a sustaining business that not just her but her community as well.

A Life Fueled by a Generous Spirit

Spending quality time with family and friends is another testament to Rayna Bailey-Smith's generous spirit. Her hobbies and love for companionship go beyond mere activities; they reflect her virtuous life centered around empathy, compassion, and generosity. Rayna, however, doesn't restrict her love to her immediate circle of family and friends. The joy she derives from her hobbies extends to the larger populace, reflecting her magnanimous spirit.