

Dr. Steven Sukho Kim

Family physician. Healthcare services

Dr. Steven Sukho Kim is an exemplary Family and Primary Care physician who oversees the Minor Urgent Care & Walk-in Clinic at Inspire Medical Group in Sunnyvale, California. His practice is marked by an innovative blend of traditional care and telemedicine, ensuring broad access to healthcare services.

Dr. Kim is a passionate educator. Through his teaching roles at esteemed institutions such as Stanford Medical School, he has shaped the careers of many healthcare professionals. His influence extends beyond education to his commitment to public service, notably his time as a Commissioned Officer in the U.S. Air Force, where he provided vital medical services.

Before his tenure at Inspire Medical Group, Dr. Kim was deeply involved in community health at Bay Area Community Health in San Jose. He was critical in expanding telehealth services during the COVID-19 pandemic, enhancing healthcare accessibility during unprecedented global health challenges.

As the Senior Medical Editor at Healthline Networks, Dr. Kim led a team that delivered medically accurate and relevant health content. His leadership in developing the BODY MAPS project demonstrated his commitment to enhancing educational resources in anatomy and physiology.

Steven Suhko Kim, MD, also held significant roles at Cisco LifeConnections Health Center and Kaiser-Permanente, where he pioneered health IT solutions that significantly improved patient experiences and operational efficiency. His innovative approaches have set new standards in patient care and satisfaction.

In addition to his professional pursuits, Dr. Kim has been a leader in numerous medical missions, delivering crucial healthcare services to underserved communities in remote areas of Latin America and Southeast Asia. His military honors, including the National Service Defense Medal, underscore his dedication to service.

Educationally, Dr. Kim holds a BA from Stanford University and an MD from UC Davis School of Medicine. He completed his residency at Glendale Adventist-Loma Linda Medical Center, where he received extensive training in family practice. His board certification extends through 2030.

Dr. Steven Sukho Kim remains a vital force in the medical community, continually advancing healthcare delivery, education, and service. His career is distinguished by a commitment to excellence and a profound impact on the lives of his patients and the broader community.