

Biography of Justin Scott Cherry Hill, NJ

Elder Law Attorney

Cherry Hill, NJ, USA

Justin Scott

His well-rounded personality and adaptability to balance professional and personal life make him a respected figure both within and beyond professional circles.

Meet Justin Scott Cherry Hill, NJ, a highly esteemed elder law attorney from Cherry Hill, NJ, who expertly balances his vigorous pursuit of professional excellence with the flexibility of adapting to the constant change in his field.

Educational Background and Career History

Justin earned his B.S. from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia, before continuing to Liberty University School of Law, where he received his Juris Doctorate. With a solid educational foundation in place, he embarked on his professional journey by clerking for a law firm in the bustling Washington, D.C., area.

As a quick learner and a natural decision-maker, he accelerated his career in the fields of estate planning and elder law. His unwavering commitment to continuous growth and adaptability enabled him to navigate the evolving laws and regulations in this specialized legal sector.

In a strategic career move, Justin returned to New Jersey and honed his expertise with two well-established elder law firms. These experiences equipped him with deep insights and a broad understanding of his field, paving the way for him to establish his firm, Scott Counsel. Today, he advises clients on various sensitive issues, including long-term care planning, wills and trusts, asset preservation, Medicaid qualification, and probate.

Justin Scott

Justin Scott, a highly esteemed elder law attorney from Cherry Hill, NJ, who expertly balances his vigorous pursuit of professional excellence with the flexibility of adapting to the constant change in his field.

Professional Accolades and Associations

His dedication to his profession has earned him significant recognition. He received the coveted Avvo "Client Choice Award" in 2016 and was voted "Top Attorney" in 2019 and 2020. Moreover, he engages authentically with his audience while speaking on various estate planning and elder law topics, embodying leadership with grace.

Committed to professional excellence, he holds memberships in several legal organizations, including the New Jersey State Bar Association, the New Jersey Elder Law Section, the Camden County Bar Association, and the Burlington County Bar Association.

Publications

Recognized for Justin Scott Cherry Hill, NJ's distinctive understanding and practical expertise in elder law, he has authored three popular books. His works include "Senior Shakedown: The Unknown Dangers of Getting Old, and How to Protect Your Loved Ones" (2016), "Dementia: What You Must Know to Protect Your Loved One" (2017), and "Steps After Stroke" (2018). Through these publications, he demonstrates his ability to cater to different reading audiences and his ongoing efforts to spread information and awareness about elder law.

Justin Scott

Committed to professional excellence, Justin holds memberships in several legal organizations, including the New Jersey State Bar Association, the New Jersey Elder Law Section, the Camden County Bar Association, and the Burlington County Bar Association.

Community Involvement

Despite Scott's demanding professional life, he never neglects his responsibility to his community. He wholeheartedly participates in the Camden County Bar's Adopt a Family program, reflecting his commitment to sharing success with the community and promoting positive societal change.

Personal Life

When not championing the rights of the elderly or writing books, he enjoys spending quality time with his daughter, Sofia. He indulges in traveling, visiting Broadway shows, attending Philadelphia sports events, and playing golf. His well-rounded personality and ability to balance his professional and personal life make him a respected figure both within and beyond professional circles.

Justin L. Scott Esq. stands as a competent and compassionate elder law attorney dedicated to his client's welfare. His flexibility, guidance, and ongoing education are essential virtues that set him apart and continue to define his success, personally and professionally.

Justin Scott

Justin has demonstrated his ability to cater to different reading audiences and his ongoing efforts to spread information and awareness about elder law.

In his personal life, Justin Scott Cherry Hill, NJ finds joy in spending quality time with his daughter, Sofia. He indulges in activities like traveling, attending Broadway shows, supporting Philadelphia sports events, and playing golf. His ability to balance professional responsibilities with personal pursuits speaks to his well-rounded nature and adaptability.

ScottCounsel

Managing Attorney at Scott Counsel, P.C.

Top performing elder law attorney with remarkable experience, dedicated to the representation and advocacy of families and senior citizens. I am committed to assisting clients navigate their way through planning for the extraordinary costs of long-term care by utilizing various asset protection strategies and planning tools.

As Managing Attorney at Scott Counsel, P.C., I focus on Medicaid planning and applications, asset preservation, estate planning, guardianships, and trust administration. From drafting powers of attorney, health care proxies, last wills, trusts and testaments, to handling real estate transactions, I offer outstanding customer service to my clients demonstrating integrity and respect.

Specialties: Estate Planning, Guardianships, Life Resource Planning, VA Benefit Planning, Medicaid Planning, Probate of Estates.

I am on LinkedIn to strengthen my relationships. If you are interested in talking about some of my core competencies, let us connect.

✉ E-mail jscott@scottcounsel.com ☎ Phone 856-281-3131 July

2018 - Present Cherry Hill, New Jersey, United States

Bratton Estate & Elder Care Attorneys

Partner

We are not your typical law firm. Through our specialized service and compassionate attorneys and social workers, we pride ourselves on our core values- compassion and advocacy. We help protect what matters most to you. Even as professionals, we never lose sight of why we do this, we get it, we all have something to protect and we understand how important it is. Each person's needs are different, for one it may be your children or house and another their aging parent. Before we advise, we listen. We explain your options and guide you toward making a decision that is in your best personal and financial interests and provide the protection and care you deserve.

July 2017 - July 2018 Haddonfield, New Jersey, United States

Rothamel Bratton Attorneys At Law

Partner

Rothamel Bratton is boutique firm that focuses on estate planning, elder law, real estate law, landlord/tenant, business law and litigation. The lawyers of Rothamel Bratton take the time to understand each client's individual needs and educate clients on their rights and options. In addition to advising clients, they strive to educate the community.

As an Elder Law Attorney, I focus on the legal needs of the elderly using a variety of tools and techniques to meet their needs.

Areas of practice include:

- Health and personal care planning: powers of attorney, living wills, lifetime planning, family issues.
- Financial representation: financial planning, housing opportunities and financing, income, estate, and gift tax matters.
- Capacity: guardianship
- Resident rights in long term care facilities and nursing home claims.
- Will and trust planning
- Life care planning

January 2017 - June 2017 | Haddonfield, New Jersey, United States

Price & Price, LLC

Associate Attorney

Price and Price, LLC is a Law Firm that families trust to meet their planning needs. It is the largest elder law firm in South Jersey.

As Associate Attorney, I counseled hundreds of clients regarding estate, tax and charitable gift planning, Medicaid planning, and business tax and succession planning. This includes preparation of wills, powers of attorney, trusts, gift and estate tax returns, deeds, etc. December 2014 - January 2017 | United States

Liberty University School Of Law

Juris Doctor

Lynchburg, Virginia, United States

EDUCATION