

BRENDA NECKVATAL

CEO | UAV Pilot | Public Speaker | Author

Featured in Entrepreneur.

Forbes

FAST COMPANY

U.S. News & WORLD REPORT

Inc.

Brenda Neckvatal

MEET BRENDA

Brenda is a 2x Best Selling Author and international award-winning professional who is a specialist in crisis management, government contracting, HR, and Unmanned Aerial Systems.

Brenda is a contributor to Entrepreneur.com and has been featured in Forbes, Fast Company, Inc, US News and World Reports. Having the benefit of working for five Fortune 500 companies in her 30 years of business leadership, security, and operations, she converted her experience and the experience of the cadre of retired US Navy SEALs she leads into a training program for law enforcement UAV pilots on tactical drone education. Brenda is the non-tactical instructor and CEO of Aerial Recon Training by DRL Products.

Her HR experience has exposed her to managing volatile employee situations involving workplace violence, near stabbing, deliberately inciting fear in other coworkers, stalking women, breaches of protocol around national security, assault, suicide, death, homicide, and a potential active shooter.

Perseverance, integrity, and relentless optimism are just of the few of the ingredients that make up what you experience when meeting and working with Brenda.

Individual Contributor

Entrepreneur

Click Here to read
Brenda's articles

BRENDANECKVATAL.COM

BEST SELLING AUTHOR

Brenda is a two-time Amazon Best Selling Author and her recent book, Two Wolves, Which One Are You Feeding And How You Impact Your Team was released in February 2022.

It's a leadership book on mindset and building trust with your team told from the perspective of a Human Resource professional.

Brenda's specialty is in Leadership and group dynamics as she breaks down practices that hold leaders back from reaching their full potential.

Click Here to read Brenda's books

Click Here to Book Brenda

BEST SELLING AUTHOR

Brenda touches her HR audience through Best Practices in Human Resources: How to Claw Your Way from Want-to-be to VP, and has published two additional books in 2019.

She shares her career experiences as a crisis specialist, as well as her successes and failures in a way that connects with every reader. Brenda has always believed in "keeping things real" and believes authenticity is what connects her to her audience. Her no-holdback approach reminds readers that the road to success is never traveled in a straight line, and giving up is not an option.

Click Here to read Brenda's books

Click Here to Book Brenda

PUBLIC SPEAKER

Click_Here to Book Brenda

Brenda is a dynamic and energetic keynote speaker who motivates audiences into taking action. Her approach to speaking on the challenging topics of today's world is practical, sound, innovative, supportive, and can be adapted by anyone.

Brenda has a zealous love for teaching, facilitating, and connecting with driven purpose people.

Topics include, but are not limited to:

- Building Trust as a Leader
- Redefine Yourself
- Five Things I've Learned Working with Navy SEALs
- Winning in the Face of Fear
- Leadership
- Personal Achievement
- Supporting a Veteran Workforce

Brenda did a great job of presenting "The Five Things I Learned Working with Navy SEALs" to our local Human Resources Chapter. She was engaging and articulate and well received by our group. As the Program Director for Hampton Roads SHRM I would not hesitate to ask her to return for another speaking event and would highly recommend Brenda. You will not be disappointed.

- Tom C.

Click Here to Watch Brenda