ABOUT THIS WORKBOOK

This workbook will help you answer Nature's seasonal invitations to grow, rest and regenerate within a practice of love. You will identify Nature as your teacher so that as you mature, you can embrace her more fully as your healer. We have included space for your reflections, prayers and questions for further research so you can create a spiritual home you can trust.

WHERE DO WE FIND THE DIVINE FEMININE?

The word Divine refers to that invisible aspect of our being that is focused on the highest good for all. When we add the word feminine to divine, we are referring to a special quality in how the Divine shows up

The Human Blueprint in Nature

Creation is more than a gift, she is literally part of us. Her soil colors our bodies, her air animates our souls, and we are intended to love all of her manifestations. We are infused with Creation, and thrive when we love her as ourselves.

Check out examples of the mirror image of human beings in Nature.
