

CONSTANTINE J. ALLEYNE

FOUNDER | AUTHOR | SPEAKER

Constantine Alleyne, hailed as the "Queen of the Pivot," embodies resilience and determination in every facet of her vibrant journey. With a fervent desire to leave a lasting legacy, she established Alleyne and Co LLC in 2018 and subsequently founded the Civilian Corrections Academy in 2019, Alleyne Publishing in 2020, and the Kendall Wyche Foundation in 2024. Her passions for mentorship, advocacy, and professional excellence have driven her to become a sought-after speaker, empowering professional women to overcome limiting mental constructs and pivot confidently towards their dreams.

From captivating guest lectures to dynamic webinars and expert panels at renowned small business and correctional conferences, Constantine's magnetic energy resonates, inspiring others to break free from limitations. Balancing her role as a Senior Manager at Raytheon Technologies with visionary leadership in various ventures, she champions empowerment in every sphere. As an educator, Constantine stepped into the world of academia in 2019 as an adjunct criminal justice professor at Monroe College. Now pursuing her Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership. She is also a certified member of ForbesBLK and has been invited to join the National Honor Society, solidifying her reputation as a leader in her field.

Constantine's narrative extends beyond boardrooms and lectures, woven into literary gems like "The Cage Was Her Cocoon," revealing her transformation from a prison administrator to an entrepreneur. Her newest releases, "Mommy Please Don't Let Me Die Here" and "Kendall's Diabetes Adventure," coupled with the caregiving journal "Caregiver's Corner: Nurturing You," illuminate courage and hope. Recognized among the Top 100 Women Leaders of Connecticut 2022 by Women We Admire, Constantine defies categorization, radiating wisdom and expertise, setting the tone with her unparalleled credibility and business acumen.
