ABOUT

DARICK SPEARS

Founder/Owner of Darick Books (DDS Mediaworks LLC.)

America's Most Creative Writer/ The World's Greatest Poet Author, Writer, Producer, Publisher, Business Owner/Consultant Public Speaker, Rolling Stone Monthly Contributor

Author of over 100 books across 15 categories, scriptwriter, songwriter, and ghostwriter. From childhood, Darick Spears processed the world through his notebook.

Darick was born with a mind constantly on the move — dreaming up new ideas, analyzing the world around him, and making magic from the mundane.

He didn't know how to communicate his musings to the people around him. So, he turned to a place of no restriction and no judgment — his notebook Acclaimed as America's Most Creative Writer, since that day, Darick has explored expression in a myriad of different mediums.

From books to plays to films (4 streaming on Amazon Prime), hip-hop albums (25+), and instrumental albums; Darick's career has been prolific enough to fill an entire bookstore of his own work.

Darick owns DDS Mediaworks LLC, which is a tri-media company that focuses on arts, education, and business. His bookstore and creative space in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Darick Books; The first bookstore of its kind, is a testament to his expertise in creativity, which he is now using to assist others in developing their work through many facets of entrepreneurship, writing, publishing, coaching, and more. Darick Books is a Milwaukee community organization that serves SEDI individuals and continues to push the threshold of learning, business, and creativity. In addition, his foundation, The Darick Books Edutainment Foundation Inc. Darick also focuses on diversity training workshops, community building, and more.
