Apart from her bustling professional life, Destiny Davis's heartbeat for philanthropy. She generously offers her time, teaching yoga at a women's rehabilitation center. She is a beacon of hope, supporting initiatives like Vera's Sanctuary, which focuses on assisting human trafficking victims. Health and wellness are her sanctuary. Regular workouts, yoga, and meditative practices sustain the vigor with which she approaches each day. This commitment was cemented when she earned her 200-hour yoga alliance teaching certificate in 2018.

Her versatile interests range from playing golf to meditation. The challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic saw her embracing golf and exploring the realms of personal real estate investment. Keeping an eagle's eye for promising real estate opportunities, she simultaneously rejuvenates her spirit at motivational seminars, particularly those orchestrated by Tony Robbins.

To encapsulate her journey, she is the epitome of ambition, adeptly harmonizing her evolution with professional accomplishments, all under the umbrella of dedication, hard work, and leadership.
