

Dominic Fournier

MC/DJ

Fantastic MC skills – Few things prepare you better for public speaking than stand-up comedy; after more than 7 years of comedy experience in California and the Pacific NW, there has never been a microphone he didn't love!

High energy – If you want your audience's attention throughout your event, Dominic is the perfect host for groups, large or small.

Professional – As a former Army Officer and corporate executive, he understands a professional audience and the need to remain focused and on message.

Great under pressure – Whether it is a last min change or if you need 5 mins to be ready for the next speaker or event, Dominic is more than capable to jump in and stall while keeping your audience engaged until the show is back on track.

DJ Extraordinaire – From light cocktail music to epic dance floor fun, Dominic understand how to cater to the crowd and engage his party goers with music to suit any demographic.

AV Support – If you need basic AV support for your small to medium sized group, Dominic can be your roadie with slideshow/logo projection and multiple microphone options (handheld, lapel, over-ear)
