CORPORATE SPEAKING, TRAINING and CONSULTING SOLUTIONS THAT WORK FOR YOU

According to Harvard Business Review, a Bachelor's degree is only relevant for five years. Past that point, new learning must occur to keep a workforce current and competitive.

Dr. Holly Sullenger offers corporate speaking, training and consulting solutions to help professionals acquire the knowledge, skills and abilities (KSAs) they desperately need.

"I can't think of anyone I've EVER taken a class from that has a wider breadth of capability, more depth of knowledge, or greater skill to communicate training concepts (regardless of the subject matter at hand) than Holly does. She keeps her students engaged during the entire class and challenges them to go further while also making them feel at home. And she accomplishes all this with finesse and integrity." Dr. Joseph Perez, NC Dept of Health and Human Services
