About Keith Shaw

Coach Keith Shaw is a former Professor who taught at Baylor University. He has a master's degree in Management and Leadership, as well as SHRM-SCP and PHR Human Resources Management certifications. He is a leading authority in Leadership Engagement and personal development. He helps organizations and individuals implement world-class business, leadership and personal strategies that accelerate the engagement and the achievement of extraordinary results. He delivers keynote presentations in a manner that is informative, entertaining, interactive, motivating and inspirational, leaving attendees with insight and practices that can be applied immediately and spark audiences into action.

If you are searching for a speaker that can make an immediate impact on your organization, Coach Keith Shaw is the right speaker for you. He started his professional career as a mechanic and worked his way up to the director level of Fortune 500 companies. He has served as a trusted advisor to CEO's, Vice Presidents, Senior Leaders and Supervisors for 20+ years, and has been designated as a High Performing/Potential Employee himself throughout his entire career. Because he has personally worked at every level, Coach Keith Shaw can relate and interact with your entire organization, to include both leaders at every level, as well as entry level laborers. He has worked his way from laborer to leadership, and can inspire, educate and engage individuals at all levels.

World-Class Experience & Results!

Coach Keith Shaw focuses on the fundamentals of leadership, management skills and personal development, and he sparks the desire in participants to take action and continue their learning journey beyond the keynote event. He has helped Fortune 500 level organizations reduce turnover, improve employee relations and increase workforce satisfaction and engagement. He delivers an engaging keynote that will spark change, improvement and transformation for leaders and the entire workforce.
