

Micheline Ntiru

Micheline Ntiru is a polyglot and a global executive – she has over 20 years of global experience in Africa, Asia Pacific, Europe, Latin America and the United States. She is a business advisory specialist, an investor, a story teller and a certified executive coach. Micheline thrives working with business leaders across Africa and Latin America, and helping to drive social and economic growth. She is completing her book of short stories and has co founded two media platforms, one on cosmopolitan African narratives ('wethreequeensofafrica' on podcast and YouTube) and another that focuses on the African-Brazilian experiences (Diaspor'amente)

TESTIMONIAL

“ There is tremendous depth and breadth in Micheline’s work. Whether she’s talking about leadership, reading fiction or leading a discussion on identity politics. A polyglot, blogger and host, she’s mastered how to communicate for impact. „
