

Now is THE TIME For Women IN ART

“Art has no gender”

– and yet most of the art we know
was created by men.

The Forgotten Women

Female Artists have either been overlooked or credited to someone else by the establishment art world

Elisabeth Louise Vigée Le Brun (1755–1842)

Sofonisba Anguissola (1535–1625)

Caterina Van Hemessen (1528–1587)

Adélaïde Labille-Guiard (1749–1803)

Marie-Gabrielle Capet (1761–1818)

Rosa Bonheur (1822-1899)

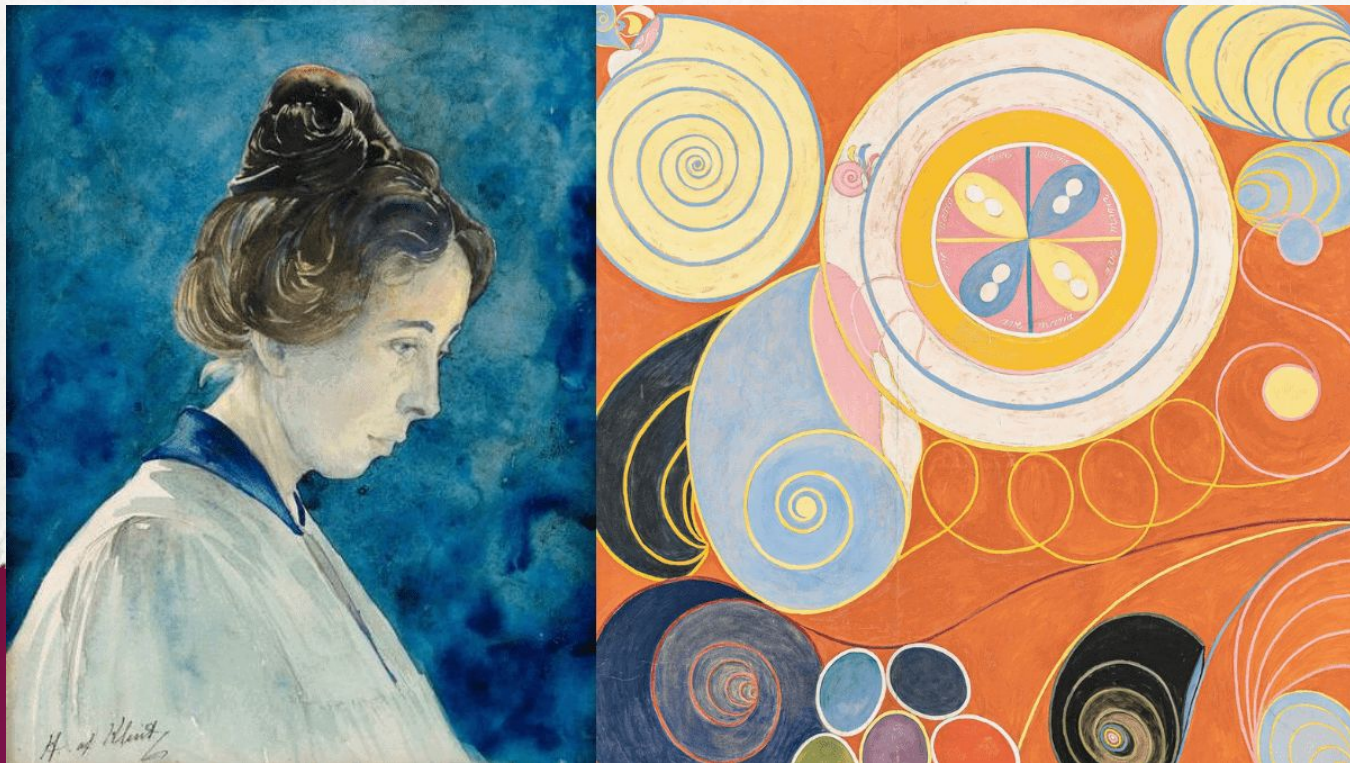

Tamara De Lempicka (1898–1980)

Judith Leyster (1609–1660)

Berthe Morisot (1841–1895)

Hilma af Klint (1862–1944)

Helen Frankenthaler (1928–2011)

Suzanne Valadon (1865–1938)

Lavinia Fontana (1552–1614)

Amrita Sher-Gil (1913–1941)

THE BIG FOUR

These four women are repeatedly highlighted in art history as if only four women ever painted:

Artemisia Gentileschi

Mary Cassatt

Frida Kahlo

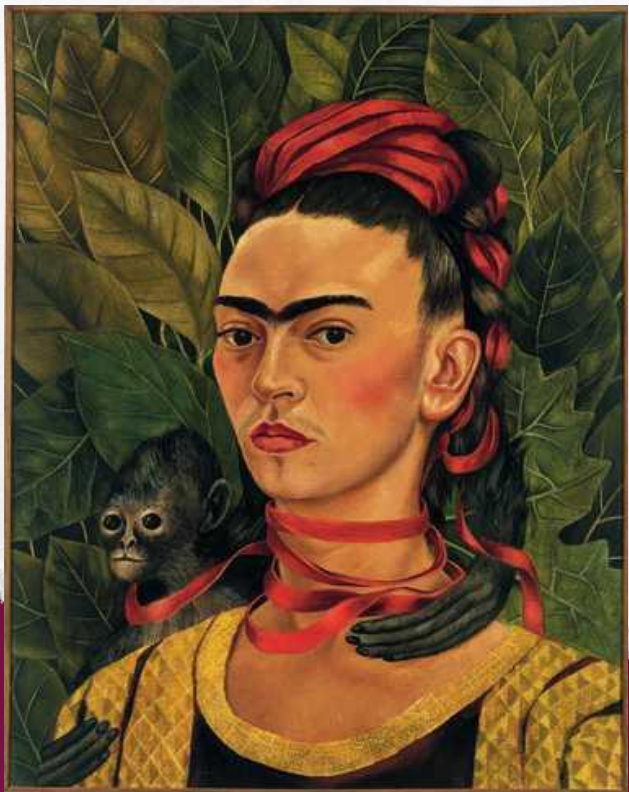

Georgia O'Keeffe

Artemisia Gentileschi

Mary Cassatt

Frida Kahlo

Georgia O'Keeffe

WOMEN IN THE ART WORLD TODAY

MUSEUMS

3-5%

of museum acquisitions are from female artists

ART AUCTIONS

2%

Living female artists accounted for only 2% of the total auction sales in the first half of 2019

ART BASEL

28%

Only 28% of art at Art Basel is women
yet 64% of enrolled art students are women

Yayoi Kusama

Change Makers

Maria Britto

Change Makers

Ekaterina Popova