

Theresa Worthy

"Theresa was a guest speaker for our Inclusion program and did an amazing job captivating our employees attention. She has a unique storytelling style that is very compelling and brings it home for everyone. She engaged the audience through group discussions, employee-led brainstorming and call for action. We had a full house and received very positive feedback from our employees on Theresa's event. Thanks to Theresa our Inclusion speaker session was a big success."

Sonali Das

Director, HR
Live Person, Inc.

Presentation Showcase

Topics

The Anatomy of an Inclusive Climate: Counteracting Unconscious Bias: Strategies to make your organization a place that is welcoming and supportive for all to feel valued, respected, and appreciated.

Examining Profitability: Ensuring Inclusion that Impacts Bottom Line: Tools and strategies to help leaders and management teams along with team members to co-create inclusive workplace experiences.

Finding Serendipity in the Midst of Chaos: Tools and strategies for turning chaotic situations into opportunities for personal growth.

Workplace Climate: Looking Through the Lens of Emotional IQ: Tools and strategies for recognizing ways emotions affect employee engagement and proven methods for improving emotional IQ.

Theresa Worthy's presentations impact leadership with a roadmap to effectively impact their employee engagement. Increased employee engagement results in increased profits.

She is a professional member of the National Speakers Association. She has also been awarded the Distinguished Toastmaster Award, an honor shared by less than 2% of members of Toastmasters International.

She has a Master's Degree in French Education and is currently certified in Diversity and Inclusion training from Cornell University. She is also a student of Emotional Intelligence by Daniel Goleman.

Theresa's presentations combine stories and research with paired and/or group activities that engage her audience members. She is well aware of attention spans and does not believe in lecturing.

Her stage presence and well-constructed messages shift thinking, connect to emotions, and categorically motivate and inspire her audience members.

The immediate takeaway for attendees is a renewed mindset. The long term takeaways include tools and strategies that may be immediately applied.

Theresa believes that organizations can be transformed through the development and consistent application of tools and strategies that improve engagement and cooperation in the workplace and ultimately result in higher profits.

She tailors each presentation to meet the needs of her clients.

✉ theresa@theresaworthy.com

☎ 770-789-5478

