

SeedTreeTM
GROUP

Financial Literacy for Young Adults and Teens

Schedule author Stephen Carter for a discussion and book signing!

Former English teacher and current Director of Entrepreneurship at Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy, Stephen Carter, recently published The Seed Tree: Money Management and Wealth Building Lessons for Teens to help young adults learn and succeed in financial literacy.

“ Here’s what readers are saying: ”

“The Seed Tree Group helps prepare today’s youth and I thank Stephen for his commitment to young adults and tomorrow’s future leaders!”

-Steve Max, Executive Vice President, U.S. Bank

“To have Stephen Carter—one of the most engaging and inspiring teachers I know—write a book to help young people think about money and finances is educational gold.”

-Dr. Dean Nicholas, Head of School, Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy

“This is an entertaining, readable, and informative book on personal finance told as a story. Every high schooler should read this book to set themselves up for life.”

-Alex O’Brien, Student, University of Michigan

Stephen is a seasoned public speaker with a range of expertise on topics including:

- ✓ Financial Literacy: A practical overview of tools to take charge of your financial future
- ✓ Money Management: How to manage and master your money
- ✓ Goal Setting: Creating, meeting, and exceeding your goals
- ✓ Habit Formation: Establishing systems to build healthy habits
- ✓ Intro to the Stock Market: How to get started investing in the stock market
- ✓ Financial Freedom: Getting started on a path to financial freedom

To schedule Stephen for any one of these talks and book signing, reach out to Stephen@seedtreegroup.com

Visit www.seedtreegroup.com to learn more