ABOUT ME

As an international keynote speaker, Corina has presented at conferences that have included such experts as Brené Brown and Adam Grant. Her keynote sessions are a unique combination of tried-and-true methods used by top-performing companies and leaders with the latest in human behaviour research and corporate development studies.

Corina doesn't just speak to audiences; she engages them in activities designed to build leadership and personal capabilities. Managers and Executives will receive bite-sized, actionable strategies to use with their teams based on Corina's expertise in personal growth and human behavior.

Corina was a Top 50 Leader Under 40 in Atlantic Canada and a YWCA Woman of Distinction in Business.

CORINA'S MOST POPULAR KEYNOTE TOPICS:

RADICALLY (RE)ENGAGE YOUR EMPLOYEES

In this talk, Corina will help employees and managers re-ignite their passion and commitment to their work and motivate everyone to take more ownership over their own employee experience. Audiences will learn how to leverage 'micro-moments' to keep themselves and their colleagues engaged, inspired, and striving for greatness.

THE JOY EFFECT

Positive teams are successful teams. After the turmoil of a global pandemic, employees, leaders, and teams need to tap into their JOY more than ever. When company leaders understand how to reframe common leadership challenges into JOYFUL opportunities, they can ignite feelings of success and fulfillment on their teams. This uplifting keynote will provide managers and executives with tools to inspire results from their teams.

PODCAST

THE PEOPLE AND CULTURE SUCCESS SHOW

Corina's podcast includes conversations, interviews & insights on how to make workplaces WORK for everyone! In her solo episodes Corina provides strategies and tools anyone can use to build a company culture where employees are excited to show up for work each day.

BOOK

THE ENGAGED EMPLOYEE BLUEPRINT: BUILD A WORKPLACE CULTURE WHERE EMPLOYEES THRIVE

Corina created a 6-step framework published in her book, The Engaged Employee Blueprint, to show companies how they can engineer their own amazing workplace culture. Readers will learn how to accelerate employee engagement and create a workplace where their employees can't wait to come to work every day!

CORINA'S MOST POPULAR KEYNOTE TOPICS:

ADDRESSING THE ELEPHANT IN THE ROOM: NAVIGATING DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS WITH EASE

Difficult conversations are inevitable yet often avoided due to uncertainty or a lack of confidence as to how to even begin the conversation. During this engaging, humorous session, participants will shift their mindset and learn how to address the 'elephant in the room' to handle difficult conversations with ease!

INSPIRED ACCOUNTABILITY

Accountability is essential to achieving results in any organization so how can managers foster accountability without being a driver of results and burning themselves out? Organizations with high levels of accountability tend to have higher levels of employee engagement. In this keynote, managers and executives will learn how to set up a system of peer accountability on their teams and how to foster a culture of accountability with something known as 'agreements'.
