

I give inspiration and instruction to people who want to live with consequence.

Growing up wasn't easy for me. Despite that, I've lived my life in defiance of the odds. The message I bring to your audience is about that journey - specifically how I went from a mindset of surviving to one of thriving.

During my presentations I take the audience on a journey that ultimately challenges them to make a decision to live their life "suffering toward" rather than "suffering from." I will deliver the stories and strategies that will help your audience transform their lives regardless of their circumstances or background.

Your audience will discover new ways to think about their life and their future. They will leave with the motivation and the tactical tools they need in order to take action toward living their best lives.

I think the reason Chad wins over a crowd so easily is not just because his content is golden, but because of his delivery. I have heard thousands of speakers deliver quality content, but the delivery can be arrogant or underwhelming. Chad's delivery is the perfect combination of entertaining, authentic, relatable and helpful. He truly captures a crowd.
