FROM CLIENTS...

We at the Zebra were fortunate to have Tara speak at our company for Human Rights Day, and she did a phenomenal job. I enjoyed her presentation as well as going into more detail about the aspects of human rights in the workplace. Tara gave some excellent examples and personal stories that showed how passionate she was on the topic, as well as what that means for equity, diversity, and humanness. She was a dynamic speaker, and engaged the audience throughout the talk. Me and my team were able to engage on a personable level. It was insightful, inspiring, and presented a call to action in our surrounding community. I would love to have Tara come back for any speaking engagements that might be of interest to her, we really enjoyed her.

Jocelyn Elder - The Zebra Insurance

If you want truth, passion, and inspiration, have Tara been your speaker. She preaches what we all need to hear to be better and treat people right. That is my kind of HR!

David Kitchen - State of Utah Legislature

It was great, loved the graphics and detail you went into on each descriptive topic with examples that can be implemented into our daily routines. We like to have actionable items that an entrepreneur can do immediately.
