Tom Corner

Fully customized keynotes, training and mastermind experiences to inspire you to your fullest potential

Tom Corner is known as “the strong guy with the gentle heart.” He specializes in helping accomplished men and women who’ve hit the wall of frustration to find a deep level of meaning and fulfillment.

Tom Corner is a highly sought after speaker, author and visionary. With a career spanning decades Tom had a highly successful restaurant & hospitality career that shifted to a 20-year career in the Financial Services Industry.

Without realizing it most people live their lives based on the expectations of others. Whether or not they admit it the majority of men and women feel stuck. They compromise who they are meant to be and make excuses for why their life isn’t fulfilling. They live in the place of “quiet desperation” until one day it all falls apart.

Working with the country’s largest insurers, banks, brokers and dealers, Tom’s desire to find deeper meaning about his purpose led him on the road less traveled.

Whether not doing what they truly want, not getting what they deserve, not living up to their potential or settling for a life of chaos, Tom teaches others how to stop the insanity with a proven system anyone can adopt.

This morphed into his current business as a speaker, author and consultant. His journey towards and enlightened way of being has blossomed into a life he only once dreamed of.

Tom’s presence is undeniable. A strong man with a gentle nature, Tom shows others, through example, what is possible.

The Mosh Pit Of Your Mind

Our mind is an interesting thing. It can play tricks on us that convince us we are less than we are meant to be. Tom shares his own story about how his mind was a dangerous place to be alone, yet through an enlightened experience realized his mind was a powerful tool and resource. You will learn a powerhouse strategy to get you to the top of your game.

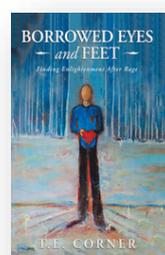

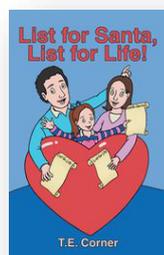

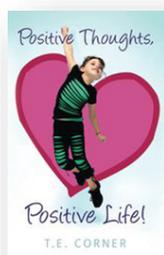

His philosophy is simple...

F.E.A.R. – Finding Enlightenment After Resistance

Fear is a wonderful teacher, but most people allow it to cripple them. Understanding our fears enables us to face them. On the other side of our fears resides love, which is our true strength. During this inspiring talk, Tom shares insights how virtually anyone can not only get to the other side of fear, but make fear your ally.

“Strength lies not in brute force, intimidation, anger or retaliation. True strength lies in peace with oneself and accepting your enemy, which all too often is one’s self.”
