About Vidya:

Vidya Raman is an award-winning speaker with deep corporate leadership experience. Her passion for making meaning out of the mundane, finding joy at work, and better communication is both respected and valued by her clients. Her keynotes, workshops, and after-care programs are founded on the belief that an employee with an owner's mindset has the power to build a productive, collaborative, and joyful workplace one interaction at a time.

Vidya has over 25+years of experience in Financial Services engaged in technology, project leadership, and executive roles in Fortune 500 companies. Embodying a leadership philosophy that cares equally about employee satisfaction and corporate results helped Vidya develop her transformational leadership credentials.

She holds a Master of Computer Applications (MCA) from India and is a Project Management Professional (PMP) and Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM).
