Speaking Topics

Identity: Finding your own truth

At a young age, I reluctantly participated in a religious cult. 14 years later, I finally broke free and began a journey of emotional & psychological healing. I will share the valuable lessons & insights that I have learned along the way.

When Opportunity & Oppression Collide

As a young African-American college student living in southern Alabama, a historically racist state, I encountered racial discrimination for the very first time. I will share how these tragic experiences were transformed into one of my most prized success stories!

The Reward of Pursuing your Dream

I spent valuable years of my life at “good” jobs that I dreaded waking up to go to every day. Eventually, I decided that I deserved better. Now, I get to share with you how I successfully transitioned from a drab job to dream job!
