

Continuing Education Seminar

Market Structure and Where to Invest?

In this presentation, speaker Niall O'Malley will cover the following topics:

- How do societal factors influence markets?
- Understanding President Trump.
- How has the China growth story changed?
- What happened to productivity growth?
- What sectors hold above average promise?

Speaker: Niall O'Malley founded Blue Point Investment Management, LLC,

in 2006. As Blue Point's Portfolio Manager, he leverages a keen understanding of the creative/destructive cycle that governs innovation, 12-years of international experience, and his understanding of the capital markets to add value for clients. Niall has often been quoted in the press by the Baltimore Business Journal, Baltimore Sun, Bloomberg, China Business News, Citybizlist Baltimore, Financial Advisor, Markets Media, Seeking Alpha and The Trade. He has been a guest speaker at CFA Society of Philadelphia, CFA Society Pittsburgh, CFA

Society Stamford and CFA Society Virginia. As an Adjunct Professor, he has taught "Investments and Equity Security Analysis" at Towson University's College of Business and Economics. He served as President of the CFA Society of Baltimore 2009-2010, and now serves on the Board and the Program Committee. Niall started the Society's Baltimore Business Review, and serves as Co-Editor. Niall earned a B.A. in Political Science from Acadia University in Nova Scotia, Canada. He studied for a year at the Institute for European Studies

ZURICH

14 June 2017

Registration 12:00

Event: 12:15 – 13:45

Networking lunch: 13:15

Thomson Reuters

Hufgasse 10, Zurich

The Society Passport is a service for travelling Members which is not for use in their country of permanent residence